2013 Tyke Coach's Message

Before the season started, several of our keen players attended our Winter Warm Up at the Oz Dome on Saturday mornings. Many of these players continued to come out for our Spring Training Camp. Our team continued to grow as we started our Summer Practices moving towards our regular season.

After all of their hard work and training, our players were very excited to test out their newly learned skills at Friday Night Tykes. It was a learning experience that helped us to grow throughout the season. In every game, the boys on the team showed a lot of heart and hustle. Our Warriors forced the league's top teams to battle to the end because there was no quit in this young team. When things got tough our players persevered. Our players played through the wind and rain. Some even had to overcome pre-game throw-ups to prepare for each game.

Friday Night Tykes showed how small and young our team was. We knew this was going to be a rebuilding year, as we had a lot of new players. Our young Warriors, however, pleasantly surprised us all. All of the coaches were happy and impressed with the team growth and improvement over the football season.

Thank you to all of the parents and volunteers for committing their time to coming out to all of the practices and games throughout the season (especially the unscheduled extra practices that were called by Coach Brian). We all learned quickly to bring a rain coat and an umbrella for all of our games in Beckwith. Parents, you can take a lot of credit for the team's success this year. Thank you all for your dedication and team spirit.

A large returning roster shows great promise for next season. For all of our graduating Tyke players, go to Mosquito camp eager to learn. Take the lessons you learned about the value of hard work; the value of committing in each drill and play; and most importantly, challenge yourself. For our Tykes that will be coming back to our Tyke program, remember the importance of leading by example. Show your coaches and teammates what you are willing to do for your team. If you do, like this year, we are sure you'll be amazed how much more you'll be able to do. You'll also be amazed by the impact your determination will have on the players around you.

We really look forward to seeing all of our veterans return for another great year of football.

"Go Warriors" – WARRIORS FOR LIFE!

BELL WARRIORS 2013 PLAYER PROFILES

DEFENSE

2 Justin (J-Dog) Golab: Justin was a first year tyke. His skills for the game were apparent from day one. What he lacked in size, he made up for in his football sense. He was very energetic and eager at every practice. I look forward to seeing what you will bring out next season. Thank you for a wonderful first year of tyke football.

4 Owen (Little Big Man) Lavigne: As a 1st year tyke, Owen showed tremendous veteran like qualities. He has all the makings of being a great defensive player. I enjoyed coaching Owen this year. Owen loved to be involved and was always around the ball. Owen had the first turnover by interception in our very first game of the year. He always had a smile on his face and never questioned what was asked of him. A pleasure to coach and look forward to seeing him next year.

12 Aiden-Ty (ATV) Vallatu: ATV was one our late comers. ATV showed that he was fast learner and with his natural athletic ability, it made him a perfect fit at the Defensive Back position. ATV never shied away from making tackles and was always eager to get his chance to make plays on the field. ATV will be moving onto the Mosquito level next year. The coaches wish him good luck.

14 Robert (The Rebel) Demers: Robert was a pleasant surprise this year. His first year playing tyke, he used his size, speed and talent. Robert started the year on offense, but soon found his home on defense. He played both linebacker and D-line. He has a natural instinct for where the ball is. Once the ball carrier is in his sights and cross hairs, he does not get away. Robert was a pleasure to coach. I am looking forward to his second year at tyke. Thank you for a solid defensive year.

16 Anthony (The ANIMAL) Campbell-Harrison: Anthony showed early on that he had an instinct for attacking the ball carrier. He earned his nickname early on in the season. I wish Anthony had one more year as a tyke because he never gave up and always showed his emotion on and off the field. I never had to worry about getting him ramped up for a game, but rather trying to reel him back in a little. A pleasure to coach. Good luck at mosquito next year.

22 Avery (The Aviator) Osborne: Avery is one of those players that makes me proud to be a coach. He was one of the fastest players on the team and he made it easy for me to coach him. I could put Avery anywhere on the field and he would make an impact. He led the defense in pressure to the backfield. He was also one of the players with the speed to recover when things went wrong. I cannot wait to see what you will bring next year as a veteran. Thank you for making my job easy.

26 Nathan (Nate the Great) Mielke: Nathan was one of our promising and upcoming Defensive Tackles this year. Over the course of the training camp and the few first games Nathan had come out of his shell and started playing with aggression. Even though he was injured after the Gloucester South game, Nathan wanted to play the following week. Nathan missed the rest of the season but was greatly missed by his coaches and fellow players. The coaches look forward to seeing Nathan back next year with the Tyke program.

32 Luka (The Tank) Jovic: This was Luka's first year playing football. He's "rip, swim and club" moves progressed throughout the season. He played each down with a lot of heart, especially when he was out sized against some of the teams. Luka always brought a great sense of humour to the defensive line practice sessions and always demonstrated an extremely positive attitude. He was a great addition to our team this year. The coaches look forward to seeing Luka back next year with the Tyke program.

34 Keelor (Sneak Attack) Goffin: This was Keelor's second year playing on the defence for the Bell Warriors. His football talents and confidence have grown tremendously over the last football season. Keelor has come a long way from being the quiet player in the huddle to a play maker. One of Keelor's highlights from the season was his bone jarring tackle during the Nepean Redskins game. That tackle kept us in the game. Keelor will be moving onto the Mosquito level next year. The coaches wish him good luck.

36 Lemar (Jolly Jumper) Archer: Lemar is by far the most technically sound of tacklers. He showed all the coaches from day one that he is made for defense. He is very energetic, and also very hard on himself. Lemar was a real ball of energy, and I look forward to seeing what he will bring to the defence next year. Lemar, thank you for a very entertaining first year as a tyke.

42 Dakarai (The Destroyer) Baskin: Dakarai's third year as a tyke, he showed that his 2 years of linebacker experience were no fluke. He showed leadership qualities as well as a knack for reading the offense. He was an instant impact when on the field, regardless of whether he played injured. Next year's mosquito defense just got stronger with the addition of the destroyer. Thank you for two wonderful years of coaching. Best of luck next year.

54 Curtis (The Crusher) Brohman-Babineau: I have had the privilege of coaching Curtis for the past two years. Curtis has shown time and again that he is meant for this game. Curtis led the defense all year and played wherever he was asked. Curtis showed his true Warrior colours when we faced a very strong team. He never gave up, no matter how lopsided the score became. Thank you for two great seasons, Curtis. Best of luck next year at mosquito.

56 James (The Interceptor) Lagasse: James was one of our most flexible players on defence this year. He played multiple positions when asked and always played them to the best of his ability. This was seen when he made three interceptions at various positions. We are still wondering how a Nose Tackle can get an inception in the back field. James will be moving onto the Mosquito level next year. The coaches wish him good luck.

64 Alex (The Shadow) Bouchard: Alex made a lot of progress over the course of this season. He showed a great deal of tenacity and made his mark on the offensive line with his signature swim move. Alex showed no fear and his true grit this year by always putting in his full effort battling against some of the largest offensive lineman in Tyke. The coaches look forward to seeing Alex back next year with the Tyke program.

BELL WARRIORS 2013 PLAYER PROFILES

OFFENSE

3 Zack (Coach I need the ball) Baylin: One of our first year wide receivers who despite his size played the position without fear. His fast speed and good hands made him a valuable option on offence. He is an extremely confident player, and always wanted to make plays for the team. No defender could cover him. One of Zach's highlights was his 50 yard catch for a touch down against West Carleton. Zach is an extremely important return player for next year.

5 Zack (Am I in Coach?) Theodore: A first year player that came to the Bell Warriors late into the season. Zach's speed and ease to learn about football made it clear that he would be a valuable member of our team. Zach was like a sponge absorbing as much knowledge about his wide receiver and running back positions. He had a couple of games where he found the end zone. Zach is an outstanding athlete and will be important return player.

7 Andrew (The Missile) Howatt: Andrew had a tremendous season as our break away threat. His ability to cut on a dime sent defences into a fit. His ability to break long runs took the pressure off the Quarter Back and Offensive line. He had several games with multiple touch downs that were key in securing us a victory. His toughness was second to none. He would take big hits and always popped up to join the huddle. The coaches will miss his leadership on offence. Good luck at the Mosquito level next year.

13 Ribensley (Ribs) Boissette: This was Ribensley's first year playing football and he was one of the best pure athletes at the Tyke level. Ribensley's ability to tackle made him an asset on defence and his ability to throw and carry the ball made him an asset on offence. When Ribensley was available for the games his true athletic ability shone through. He is a great athlete and could play any position he was asked to play. The coaches expect to see Ribensley back to the Tyke program next year and are excited to see bigger and better things from him.

17 Duncan (The Battering Ram) Kemp: Duncan is a second year player and has good football abilities. He is a tough runner. In a couple of games, Duncan's running ability helped wear down the opposing defence. His ability to block made him an asset on our offensive line and made holes for Andrew Howatt to run through. When Duncan is in the moment during a game his football skills shine through. Continue to improve and the coaches wish you good luck at the Mosquito level.

23 Christopher (The Rifleman) Edward-Williams: Chris has a cannon for an arm. Chris has had one of the best Tyke years throwing the ball. His speed, vision, and good balance made him tough to defend. He was our offensive captain. He took on the leadership role on offence by ensuring that everyone on offence was in their proper position. Chris had multiple touch down games and his quarter back sneaks into the end zone were key to our victories. Not only was he fast on his fast feet, he was just as dangerous with his arm. Chris' knowledge of offence and defence will make him an important player for the Mosquito team next year.

33 Ryan (The Rock) Morissette: Ryan was a rock this year. He was there when you needed him and pushed with ferocity. He also has a calming essence to him as his brother does. It will be very interesting to see Ryan take the mantle as a leader next year as we all know he can. I dub thee Hulk.

35 Noah (The Natural) Laplante: For his first year and his size, Noah wowed everyone. He played with the power seen by the biggest kids. Noah is a natural athlete, being able to overcome his size with intelligence and knowledge of angles. I dub thee Hawk eye.

37 Alex (The Back-Up) Miles: Alex was a first year player. He has deceptive speed, good hands and knowledge of the game. He was always ready to practice to the fullest. Alex's touch run in the Brockville and Belaire games showed the coaches flashes of things to come. He shows great promise for the future. Alex's ability to throw the football became apparent at the end of the season. The coaches are looking forward to utilizing his throwing ability at the Tyke level next year.

43 Bryn Jensen: This fiery red head had the heart of William Wallace himself. He came on the line late but never backed down from getting into it when asked. Bryn's inner strength will serve him well throughout all challenges life throws at him. I dub thee Wolverine.

45 Kameron Klyn: Kameron came into the unit late and was a little resilient at first but once he realized he could use his potential anywhere he goes he fit right in. Kameron's happy and intense attitude is a force to be reckoned with as we all saw when he was pummeling his opponents. I dub thee Iron Man.

47 Andy (The Bambi) Carlos Cjusa: Andy is a first year player. He started the season on defence, but his ability to catch and punt the football made it essential to move him to the offence. His long strides made it difficult for shorter defenders to catch him. Andy also took a couple of snaps at the quarter back position. His ability to punt the ball made him a key offensive weapon. This was evident in the Nepean game when he punted and recovered his own punt in the end zone. The Tyke coaches will miss Andy next year, but the Mosquitos are gaining a good player.

55 Hunter Watson: Hunter brings to a team a very witty personality that makes the team as a whole diversified. His strength and personality kind of make the team look like a marvel super hero team. Hunter is a thrill to be around and completes the offensive unit. I dub thee Thor.

65 Ethan (The Hammer) Morissette: Ethan is a quiet leader on offence. He was a devastating blocker and a punishing runner. His positive attitude and politeness made him a pleasure to coach. His protective instincts all season did not just keep his little brother safe, but rather it spread throughout the entire team to create a very stable atmosphere. When a play started entire teams watched him so they could get out of his way. Ethan carries on his shoulders what a Warrior spirit represents.

67 Isaiah Williams: Isiah came in very late into the season. This did not stop him though. He became friends with everyone instantly and showed his versatility by taking key positions and doing them well. For his first sport, he showed us all that he is a natural team player. I dub thee Punisher.
