2016 Mosquito Coach's Message

Wow!! What an incredibly wonderful experience I had this year as Head Coach. From game 1, all the way to our B-Cup championship game, this team showed me why I became a coach in the first place.

At the beginning of the year, after I had accepted the role of head coach, I knew I had my hands full. Job 1 was trying to find the right mix of coaches who shared a similar coaching style and passion. I knew right away who I wanted to ask to take over the offence this year. George Stengel had helped me the previous 2 years on the defensive side but I had no doubt that he would be able to make the switch to offence look easy. The same goes for my defensive coordinator as well, Don Osborne. I had no doubts in asking him to take the reins on defense. Once I surrounded myself with solid assistant coaches, the rest kind of fell into place.

My first goal this year as head coach was to create a fun learning environment. By creating a fun environment, you learn more, you stay focused and it helps everyone get better as a team. Getting better as a team was the message from day 1. The players always knew they had to work hard on every play and enjoy each moment they had on the field. This team had no shortage of heart either, even when we fell down early in games, we showed great resilience in coming back.

Every year as a team you want to improve on the previous season. This year was no different and we did improve as the season went along. I want to thank everyone who was a part of this year's team. We had a very different and very exciting offence this year, as we passed a lot more than most teams at this level. As a group of coaches, we wanted to show the players what football is all about. Football is the ultimate team game. Even though we didn't win our last game of the year, I hope everyone enjoyed the ride that your boys gave us this season. Making it to the final week of the season is the goal for every coach and player.

Even now as I look back on our team, I'm still so very proud of what we achieved. We came back strong in the second half of the season and that helped us to have a shot at the A-Cup. You boys should be very proud! Thanks again for an incredible experience. I couldn't have asked for a better group to be a part of.

All the best in whatever you do in the future, whether it's playing football or moving on to something else, I hope we had an impact.

Coach Geoff
