Bantam Team Program

2017 Bantam Coach's Message

Everyone knew that the 2017 season was going to be a work in progress but I'm not sure anyone could have predicted the total impact of the age changes on Bantam. On the positive side of the ledger, the entire Pee Wee team from '16 graduated to Bantam together which meant right from the start, we had a team chemistry. On the flip side of things, however, every team potentially had that same advantage and most significantly, we started the year with zero Bantam veterans. All our players needed to learn new terminology, new systems, new techniques and at a more dynamic and competitive level of play from, to them, new coaches. At the best of times, Bantam players are challenged on multiple levels, from school, taking on an added responsibilities of part time jobs and more complex on field demands. Much was to be learned without the support of our key leadership core, this was a daunting prospect and we rose to the challenge.

The season began with a convincing 32-0 win over the previous year's A-Cup champion Gloucester South Raiders. It was clear that we had lots of work to do in the coming weeks but the experience, resolve of our players, toughness and raw talent displayed in our first win made it evident that we would be a team that could again be hard to ignore. We were still in a process of evaluation in week 2 which saw us dispatch of the Orleans Bengals quite handily 38-6. Although we showed signs of improvement, we still hadn't established an identity. This breakthrough only came as the result of an unfortunate injury to our talented running back Matt Sheahan on the first kickoff against the Rideau Redblacks. We had to shuffle players in that could not only help to fill the void but also had the skill set and experience to take on the key role in our backfield. This eventually evolved into a dual assault by our TE and OG at the time which gave us the identity we had been searching for. Trey O'Brien and long-time O-lineman Kai Padamshi had to take on the RB roles and as they say, "the rest is history." We came out on top that game and easily handled the Gatineau Vikings on a blistering hot day the following weekend.

The Cumberland Panthers came to play the next week and our inexperience in key roles became very clear against the strong Panthers team. We lost this game but it was a closer game than the score may have suggested and on a positive note, we learned the importance of sparing our players that played 2-ways for us. Little could be learned from our next game on Thanksgiving Monday other than if you don't show up to play at Bantam, you won't get by on your reputation. We could only hope that this wake-up call would give us the tenacity needed to compete for a championship. That determination was clarified in our game against the Lions which had recently become a powerhouse because of a merger with the West Carleton Wolverines. Our boys had played in their new positions long enough now and had the confidence to take the game to the Lions in an aggressive, hard-hitting and talented battle. We came out winners in a game that ended prematurely due to the lights going out before the game was over. As fate would have it, we faced them again and this time in the quarter final, there was no question that our team was decidedly better now. The "Mud Bowl" followed giving us a chance to avenge our previous loss Thanksgiving weekend to the Kanata Knights. Field and game conditions made for a miserable day for all involved and in the end, we lost in the A-Cup semi-final 3-1 to the team that would eventually win the A-Cup. Could the outcome have been different on another day? Of course, they could have. That's why you play the game. There was no need to feel anything but proud of our boys & their growth and accomplishments as men and players this year.

To our graduates, please graduate to the next level with pride, confidence and a work ethic that will prove to everyone that you are a person and player of character. The lessons you have learned and embraced as a Warrior will serve you well on and off the field. To our volunteers and my amazing coaches, you know you have the respect of our families, players and my sincere gratitude and thanks.

Thank you all for a season that I will never forget. Warriors for Life!
