2018 Bantam Coach's Message

Congratulations to everyone on this year's Bantam team! It always takes some time to think back on how much a team has accomplished in a season. I hope that you all have reflected on the season you had. This year's team showed how hard work can change results. We continued to grow over the season and our record showed it. Playing for an "A" Cup Final is something everyone should be proud of.

After having been given the privilege of assuming the role of head coach of this year's Bantam team, I was very fortunate to inherit an experienced staff with decades of playing and coaching experience. As you will see below, it takes a great effort by a great number of people to field a successful team. Defensive and Offensive Coordinators, Joe Papalia and Tim Sheahan worked tirelessly to prepare the players week in and week out. Their passion, effort and ability to connect with the players allowed the team to grow and continue to gain confidence as the season wore on. Dan Crabtree's relentless refusal to accept second-best, while working with the defensive line, linebackers and special teams, ensured that we were hard to play against. Matt Valois' years of experience working with offences at every level within the Bell Warriors program helped ensure that we possessed strong fundamentals. Carl-Andre Potier brought youth, experience and energy to special teams and to our secondary while Mike Anderson's dedication to supporting our players night in and night out was a great asset. Liam Fleming took on the role as Bantam manager and his tireless commitment and organization skills from Spring through to the year-end Banquet cannot be underestimated. On the sidelines with us every game, I also want to thank Scott Statham for continuing to be part of our staff and contributing on defence, Shawn Morissette for organizing equipment and a huge thanks to our trainer, Stephanie Medeiros, who at every practice and every game stood by ready to take care of our players.

Finally, I want to thank Paul Stewart for guiding me through my first season as Bantam head coach. Paul not only continued to coach making sure our players were ready to compete, he also allowed me to lean on him for advice and guidance while letting me lead the team my own way. Paul's tireless commitment to the players, coaches and the club cannot be emphasized enough.

From our first Spring practice, it was difficult to see where this team was headed, especially with only 6 returning players. We saw potential in the team but it wasn't until we approached our opening games that things started to come together. We were fortunate to continue to build our roster as the season approached, gaining some enthusiastic first-year players as well as some veterans from other programs. This mix of new players took some time to gel but when they did, we started to build the momentum that took us to the "A" Cup Final. Even in the early part of the season, when other teams started to write us off after some tough losses, the coaches could see that we were close to becoming competitive. Our defence continually shut teams down giving up a miserly 13 points per game average over the regular season. In our early losses, our defence kept top teams off the score board, including shutting out the Kanata Knights in an early loss. Our offence settled in by early September and started racking up points. During the season, they scored an average of 28 points per game. Who could forget the memorable season-changing 100-plus-yard drive against the Nepean Eagles in the night fog which helped secure a smooth route to the playoffs? Although it always hurts to finish a season with a loss, I take great pride in what this group accomplished. I hope you all do as well.

As I said during my end-of-season remarks on the field, it is always tough to walk away from a team when a season finishes regardless of the outcome. This team was special and it was hugely satisfying to watch the first-year kids develop and the veterans take leadership roles preparing themselves for whatever comes next, whether in football or in life. It was my privilege to get to know the players, staff and parents of the 2018 Bantam team. To those of you moving up to Midget next year, prepare to be challenged and if you continue to work hard, you will succeed. For those of you returning to Bantam, you are now veterans and the team and coaching staff will look to you for leadership on and off the field. I know you will all be ready. Warriors for Life!
